

In Remembrance of “Telecom Man of the Nation” During World Telecom Event

To mark an international event, “ITU Telecom World 2016” which is hosted by Thailand, Thailand Post proudly presents a special personalized stamp (iStamp) set depicting the four images of “Telecom Man of the Nation” postage stamps which was issued in 1997, with QR code showing the VDO clip namely “Signals from Sky, VR009” glorifying the Late King, His Majesty King Bhumibol Adulyadej of Thailand regarding his royal duties for Thai people in the field of telecom.

Other designs of iStamp for “ITU Telecom World 2016” are also available at Thailand Post’s booth. The personalized stamps can be used for either memorable souvenir or postage (domestic and international).
